Adult Studies:

“Lyrical Lines Stirring the Soul”

Sunday Evenings at 5:30 in the Adult Education Building

In the context of the waning of winter, the arrival of spring, and the anticipation of that most Holy time of Lent and Easter, we look to poetry that stirs both our senses and our soul. The weekly exploration of the selected poems will be interactive since we readers must engage to experience.

Led by Faye Barham, Jeanne Wells Cook and Paul Smith

February 24: Lenten Topics

Selected poems deal with confession, prayer, and the journey toward the Crucifixion.

March 3: The Journey to Easter

In response to the coming of Easter, selected poems confess the humility, mystery, or wonder of our Easter experience.
